

Barnyard Training for Technical Service Providers

August 18th, 2009

Sponsored by the New York State Soil and Water Conservation Committee and the Agricultural Management Program (AEM)

Training Provided by USDA Natural Resource Conservation Service & Cayuga County Soil and Water Conservation District

- | | | |
|-------------------|---|--|
| 8:45 - 9:00 am | - | Registration - Coffee and refreshments
Cayuga County SWCD Service Center |
| 9:00 - 9:05 am | - | Welcome and Introductions
Bob Brower, CNMP Specialist,
New York State Soil and Water Conservation Committee |
| 9:05 - 9:20 am | | Program Overview, Principles of Environmental Planning for Concentrated Sources and the AEM Program and Process |
| 9:20 - 10:15 | | Concentrated Source BMPs and Alternatives
Dawn Schmidt, Watershed Engineer, NRCS |
| 10:15 am | | Leave for demonstration Farm |
| 10:30 - 12:00 | | As planning teams, view farm, AEM Tier II Worksheets, determine environmental concerns and review
Doug Gillette, Natural Resource Conservation Service, Area Resource Conservationist |
| 12:00 | | Return to SWCD Center for lunch and restrooms |
| 12:45 | | Leave for Farm |
| 1:00 pm - 2:30 pm | | Return to demonstration farm and develop plans as teams |
| 2:30 - 3:30 pm | | Review Plans and Revise |
| 3:30 pm | | Wrap-up and return home - Bob Brower, SSWC |

Coolers of ice water will be available all day.